

Langeloth Metallurgical Company (LMC), located in Langeloth, PA (near Burgettstown, PA) is conducting a search to hire an Accountant. Responsibilities include accounts payable and accounts receivable; timely and accurate completion of the month end closing process including journal entry preparation; account analysis and financial reporting; monthly physical inventory count and reconciliation; create, research, and implement process improvements in the accounting system; assist in the annual budgeting process, with special projects as required. The candidate we seek will be a high-energy talented individual. The successful candidate will have a 4-year degree in Accounting from an accredited college/university and 1-3 years of experience in the accounting field.

If you meet these requirements, please submit a cover letter with salary expectation along with your resume to: resume@langeloth.com

Or mail your resume and cover letter to:

LMC
P.O. Box 608
Langeloth, PA 15054

In return for your talents we offer a competitive starting salary, bonus, excellent health benefits, life insurance and 401(k) plan.

No recruiters or phone calls please.

M/F/V/H EOE